

Passion Worksheet

Directions:

Carefully consider your answers to the questions. Keep in mind that there are no right or wrong responses, this is to help you. Don't be concerned about "whether" you can do it or "how" it can be done, rather complete the assessment as if you have no obstacle to fulfilling your hearts desire.

1. If I could snap my fingers and know that I couldn't fail, what would I do?

2. At the end of my life, I'd love to be able to look back and know that I'd done something about:

3. If I were to mention your name to a group of your friends, what would they say you were really interested in or passionate about?

4. What conversation would you get up early in the morning to have?

At this point, if you are able to describe your passion in a word or brief sentence, go to item 10 of this assessment and do so. If you would like more clarification, consider the following statements.

5. What I would most like to do for others is:

6. The people I would like to help most are:

8. The following exercise may help you uncover a theme from your experiences, which will give you insight into your passion:

List the top six positive experiences you've had in your life and briefly describe what you did and why it was meaningful to you. These experiences may have taken place at home, work, school, or during your free time. It may have been a clock you fixed or a dress you made. It may have been a puzzle you put together or an award you received. It may have been helping some friends move, building a house, winning an election, or giving to someone in need. Remember, these are experiences that you enjoyed doing and felt fulfilled.

0 – Not at All

- _____ 1. In conversations, I like to approach topics directly, without much small talk or beating around the bush.
- _____ 2. I have a hard time getting out of bookstores or libraries without getting a bunch of books that will help me better understand issues that are being debated in society.
- _____ 3. I often tell stories about my personal experiences to help illustrate a point I am trying to make.
- _____ 4. I am a “people person” who places a high value on friendship.
- _____ 5. I enjoy including or adding new people to activities I am involved in.
- _____ 6. I see needs in people’s lives that others often overlook.
- _____ 7. I do not shy away from putting a person on the spot when it seems necessary.
- _____ 8. I tend to be analytical.
- _____ 9. I often identify with others with phrases like “I used to think that too” or “I once felt the way you do.”
- _____ 10. Other people have commented about my ability for developing new friendships.
- _____ 11. To be honest, even if I know the answers, I am more comfortable having someone “better qualified” explain Christianity to my friends.
- _____ 12. I find fulfillment in helping others, often in behind-the –scenes ways.
- _____ 13. I do not have a problem confronting my friends with the truth even if it risks hurting the relationship.
- _____ 14. In conversations, I naturally focus on the questions that are holding up a person’s spiritual progress.
- _____ 15. When I tell people of how I came to Christ, I have found that they have been interested in hearing it.

- ___ 16. I would rather delve into personal life issues than abstract theological ideas.
- ___ 17. If I knew of a high quality outreach event that my friends would enjoy, I would make a big effort to bring them.
- ___ 18. I prefer to show love through my actions more than my words.
- ___ 19. I believe that real love often means telling someone the truth, even when it hurts.
- ___ 20. I enjoy discussions and debates on difficult questions.
- ___ 21. I intentionally share my mistakes with others when it will help them relate to the solution I have found.
- ___ 22. I prefer getting involved in discussions concerning a person's life before dealing with the details of their beliefs.
- ___ 23. I tend to watch for spiritually strategic events to bring people to (such as outreach events, Damascus Road, seeker-specific events, etc.)
- ___ 24. When people are spiritually closed, I have found that my quiet demonstrations of Christian love sometimes make them more receptive.
- ___ 25. A motto that would fit me is: "Make a difference or a mess, but do something."
- ___ 26. I often get frustrated with people when they use weak arguments or poor logic.
- ___ 27. People seem interested in hearing stories about things that have happened in my life.
- ___ 28. I enjoy long talks with friends.
- ___ 29. I am always looking for a match between the needs and interests of my friends and the various events, books, magazines, etc., that they would enjoy or benefit from.
- ___ 30. I feel more comfortable physically assisting a person in the name of Christ than getting involved in religious discussions.
- ___ 31. I sometimes get in trouble for lacking gentleness and sensitivity in the way I interact with others.
- ___ 32. I like to get at the underlying reasons for opinions that people hold.
- ___ 33. I am still amazed at how God brought me to faith in him and I am motivated to tell people about it.
- ___ 34. People generally consider me to be an interactive, sensitive, and caring kind of person.
- ___ 35. A highlight of my week would be to take a guest with me to an appropriate BSU/DR event.
- ___ 36. I tend to be more practical and action-oriented than philosophical and idea-oriented.
